Testimonies:

"It was my privilege to host Alan Campbell and other members of the Refuge Ministries team in September, 2007. They presented a training for both present and potential volunteers in the prison ministry at the Regional Psychiatric Centre in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, where I serve as the chaplain. I was impressed with their presentation that included music, testimony and practical insights for prison ministry. Several of the volunteers expressed to me that they thoroughly enjoyed the morning and learned a great deal from it. I believe that it renewed the passion that originally lead them to this type of ministry in the first place. If you are in the process of beginning a prison ministry, or presently have a prison ministry, I would highly recommend the training that Alan and his team offer."

Testimonies:

"We recently had Alan Campbell to our church to share about Refuge Ministries. The presentation was excellent and he informed and encouraged people about prison ministry. The video he showed from 100 Huntley Street was excellent. Refuge Ministries is doing important work with people in our community that are in real need. I would like to encourage people to get involved. I know that we will."
